Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Response to Amendment

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5-13 are allowed over the prior art of record and newly cited prior art.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 2-4, 29-31, and 37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Pinder et al, Patent No. 6,086,377.

As to claims 2, 29, and 37, Pinder et al teach configuring a dynamic computing environment for a first hardware, a first software environment and a first network configuration, demonstrating the execution of a first software using the first hardware, a first software environment and a first network configuration of the dynamic computing environment, configuring the dynamic computing environment for a second hardware, a second software environment and a second network configuration, and demonstrating the execution of the first software using the second hardware, the second software environment and the second network configuration of the dynamic computing environment (col. 3 line 42 – col. 4 line 38 and col. 5 lines 1-56).

As to claims 3 and 30, Pinder et al teach the dynamic computing environment is shared among a sales team user and a customer user in different geographic locations, the demonstrating and configuring steps are affected by a sales team user in a first location, and using a processor in the dynamic computing environment to accept signals from the customer location to modify the execution of the first software process (col. 6 line 50 – col. 7 line 47).

As to claims 4 and 31, Pinder et al teach communications between the dynamic computing environment and the locations are secure (col. 5 lines 1-38 and col. 7 lines 5-47).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 2-4, 29-31, and 37 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
